4th Michigan Canoe Championship Starts From Grayling August 26

Grantland Rice To Film Entire Race

Racing canoeists from various northern states and Canada are expected to compete in the 4th annual Michigan Canoe Championship race down the AuSable River, August 26-27.

The first team to enter this year's marathon was an Alpena team whose entry blank was received here Tuesday. The team is Earl R. Graham, 21, and Jackson Brown, 38, both of Alpena.

Manned by two-man teams, the canoes will start at five-second intervals from Ray's dock at US-27 bridge here at 3 P. M. Saturday, August 26, for the 200-mile paddle down the winding, picturesque AuSable River. If they equal last year's record of 18 hours and 57 minutes, set by Hugh and Frank Bissonette, Oscoda brother team, the first canoe should cross the finish line at Oscoda before 10 A. M. Sunday, August 27.

Both Bissonette brothers have won the AuSable race the past two years, and if they should win again this year they will gain permanent possession of the Maxine Memorial trophy. The Bissonettes also won the 1949 Thunder Bay river canoe race from Hillman to Alpena, but failed to finish in that event on the Fourth of July this year.

Cash prizes totaling $1,650 have been posted by the Grayling and Oscoda Chambers of Commerce, and the Grayling and Oscoda sportsmen's club, sponsors of the race.

Formerly held in September after Labor Day, the race was advanced to the last week-end in August this year by the general race committee to draw larger crowds for the event.

Between 7 and 10 A. M. Saturday, August 26, all canoes entered in the race will be inspected and numbered. Contestants will attend a complimentary luncheon at 12 noon for final briefing. Entry blanks and $5 fee for each contestant should be mailed to Jerome Kessler, Grayling Chamber of Commerce.

The Fourth Annual Michigan canoe Championship race down the AuSable River will be filmed by the Grantland Rice Sportsman's Club, which plans to make a feature film of the race.

Ray Harrington of Oscoda announced last week.

"The Sportlight" is shown in theatres throughout the nation and usually depicts sports events of interest to the general public.

Harrington made the announcement that the "Sportlight" planned to film the canoe race at a meeting of the AuSable Oscoda Chamber of Commerce, of which he is secretary.

Wayne Gildersleeve of Oscoda was appointed as race guide for "Sportlight" technicians who will picture the entire race in colored movie film.

An invitation was received here this week by Jerome Kessler, secretary of the Michigan Canoe Championships for the entry of the AuSable race in the Toledo AuSable Canoe Race on Sunday, August 20. The race is approximately 35 miles in length from

Grayling Drops Final Game

The Grayling Independents lost their final league game in the North Central Michigan Baseball League at Roscommon to the Shamrocks last Sunday by a 5 to 2 count.

Roscommon used Blumenschein on the mound with Rutledge behind the plate while Bob Gildner pitched for Grayling with Tom Anthony doing the catching. The Shamrocks scored their 5 runs on hits and 5 Grayling errors while Grayling made 10 hits but could only push over 2 runs, one in the first and another in the sixth inning. The Shamrocks scored one run in the first-inning and three in the fifth and the final one in the seventh.

Next Sunday, Roscommon is to meet Rust and Houghton-Lake to meet in the makeup game. If Roscommon wins, they will take second place and will face Houghton-Lake there on August 20 in the first playoff game. If they should lose the makeup game, Grayling will be tied with the Shamrocks and a playoff game for second place will result.

The annual banquet for the North Central Michigan Baseball League has been set for September 23 at Deater's Hotel at Luzerne.

Dr. R. R. Bentz has established optical offices in the Auditorium Building in Gaylord and specializes in prescribing and fitting glasses.

Louis Mead of Detroit who has made frequent moves lately writes that he has finally found a nice apartment on Hartwell St. and hopes this move will be permanent.

Mrs. Archie Charron, former Grayling resident spent a few days with Mrs. Catherine Loskos, en route from St. Anne De Beaupre Shrine, Canada to her home in Marquette.

Napoleon, Ohio-to-Toledo's Walbridge Park on the Maumee River.

Arthur G. Morse, director of Recreation for the City of Toledo wrote the invitation saying, "Several of our Toledo boys who were so well treated by your group in last year's race advised me to write direct to you in order that you might pass the word on to boys in your section of the state who might wish to enter." A prize list of $500 is posted for the race with $250 to the winner and six other cash prizes. All contestants finishing the race receive their entry fee back. A trophy will be presented to each member of the winning team.

Indiana Air Guard Here

Over 750 men and officers of the Indiana National Air Guard under the command of Colonel Allison Maxwell are scheduled to arrive this week for the annual two week training period at the Grayling McManara Airport.

The 122nd Fighter Group, which constitutes the Indiana Air Guard, will fly a fighter sweep around Michigan winding up with a simulated strafing of the Grayling port as they arrive here this week-end.

The ground forces of the Hoosier flyers will arrive here by train about 5 A. M. Sunday morning. A truck convoy also brought in heavy equipment. The convoy numbering 50 vehicles and about 30 tons of equipment will be brought in by the big trucks.

The Indiana group's headquarters are in Indianapolis and is made up of two fighter squadrons. One is based at Indianapolis and the other at Fort Wayne. Forty-five P-51 fighter planes will be in the sweep over Michigan as they moved to their training base here.

The 122nd Fighter Group will undergo almost the same training procedure as the Michigan Air Guard with air to air and air to ground firing, bombing and rocket firing as the base of training.

Visitors are welcome to the big air base while the Indiana Guard is here but are specifically requested to remain in the spectator areas. It was pointed out by the Indiana Air Guard's Public Relations Officers that this request was for the protection of the public.

Ford Archers Hold Shoot On The AuSable

Twenty-three members of the Ford Archery Club, made the trip from Detroit by auto caravan Friday evening to participate in the Club's first canoe shoot Saturday.

On the back of each car was a colored target face, so that the group could identify the cars and keep together.

Saturday morning the archers set out at 10 minute intervals with their canoes and bow and arrows to cover the course.

The course was over a 10 mile stretch of the Main Stream of the AuSable River along which had been placed regulation wild life targets including beaver, deer, bullfrogs, owls, etc., in natural settings.

These targets had been previously placed by Fred Russow and President Jack Ketchman who had arranged the event.

Saturday evening the group gathered at Harry's and Min's Hideout near McMaster's bridge for a weiner roast and discussion of the day's events.

Prizes for the day were awarded by Ketchman.

High score was won by James McGuire who has participated in several National Archery meets including the one in California last year.

Bob Stone who had low score and lost his bow when his canoe upset was awarded a sling shot.

Mrs. Verna Kuzma who was the only woman to make a shoot was awarded a prize of a shooter's glove.

Recounting the day's events around the roaring campfire brought out tales of canoes upsetting, targets not seen or seen too late to shoot at them, and the handicaps of bow and arrow shooting from a canoe, however all the group was enthusiastic about the shoot and voted unanimously to make the affair an annual event.

Pictures of the group around the campfire were made by Ford News Photographer Jack Breiden who traveled with the group and who also took pictures along the course during the shoot.

Sunday morning at 9 o'clock the group again gathered at Harry's and Min's hideout to consume several frozen waffles doughnuts baked by Min and several gallons of coffee before returning home.

This was the first trip for many of the Club to this section of the State and they were enthusiastic about the number of deer seen and the wonderful archery hunting conditions in this area. Many of them are planning to hunt here this fall.

Final Rites For Mrs. Schumann

Final rites were read at Michelson Memorial Church Monday morning, August 7th at eleven o'clock for Mrs. Grace Doty Schumann, widow of the late Oscar P. Schumann, for over thirty years editor and publisher of the Crawford County Avalanche. Rev. R. C. Puffer officiated at the service. Mrs. Roy Milnes sang "My Task," with organ accompaniment by Mrs. C. G. Clippert, Roy Milnes, Emil Giegling, Charles Moore, Clarence Johnson, Wilhelm Rase and A. J. Joseph were pallbearers. The remains were taken to Saginaw the same day for interment in Oakwood mausoleum and a prayer service at three o'clock.

The deceased, the former Grace Doty, was born in Jonesville, Michigan, April 15, 1878. She taught school before her marriage to Oscar P. Schumann in 1903 at Hudson, Michigan. Having joined her husband here in 1911 shortly after he took over the publishing of the Crawford Avalanche, she immediately became a part of Grayling's civic, church and social life. She was a dutiful homemaker, yet always found time to be active in community work and often contributed to the news columns of the Avalanche. Even though she had been in ill health for the past three years she at no time lost her interest in Grayling or world affairs. There have been very few happenings in Grayling in the past thirty-nine years in which both Mr. and Mrs. Schumann did not have an interest if not an active part.

The passing of some one so little different to the community but this is not so of the Schumanns. Their character and ability and constant belief in Grayling have made a lasting impression. Both gave their "all" for Grayling. They were both also known and respected beyond the bounds of Grayling.

Mrs. Schumann was a member of the Methodist Church, Grayling Women's Club, The Women's Society of Christian Service, Evangelical Methodist Church, Mercy Hospital Aid and in years past the Good Fellowship and Social Club.

Passing away at Mercy Hospital on Saturday, August 5th, following a three weeks illness, Mrs. Schumann leaves a host of friends. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Carl J. Bauer, Jr., of Saginaw, Mrs. A. E. Smith, Spring Lake, and Mrs. C. E. Wilson, Denver, Colorado; six grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. G. R. DuBoise of Grand Rapids.

Among those from out of town to attend the final rites were her daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. DuBoise of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. Otto Kunze and daughter of Cadillac.

Mrs. Herb Sube and children of San Francisco, California, are spending a few days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sube.

The South Branch Ladies Aid will be held Thursday, August 10 at the church at 7 P. M. After the meeting a fellowship supper will be held immediately followed by Bible Study. Potluck and everyone is invited to attend.

Two Weeks Training To Be Most "Rugged" Since War

Governor's Review Program All Set

All roads lead to Grayling for some 8,000 ground troops of the Michigan National Guard next Saturday, August 12.

Marking the greatest concentration of men and equipment in the history of the Michigan National Guard, the 1950 encampment scheduled for 12 to 26 August will be the most important and "rugged" since World War II.

Under an aura of uncertainty occasioned by conflicting mobilization reports and a sense of urgency as time runs out on world peace, the 8,000 "doughfoots" of the 46th Division mean business as they jump through their training paces.

Already some Guardsmen have been alerted for federal induction. Missing from the 1950 camp are the bridgebuilders from the "So", the 143rd Engr. Trdy Br. Co., Detroit, 127th Engineers, and Pontiac's 107th Ordnance Co. are also missing, preparing for full time duty with Uncle Sam.

AAA units from Detroit and the Upper Peninsula will also be missing from the Grayling scene. They complete their field training 19 August at Camp Haven, Wisc.

Training plans announced by Maj. Gen. Ralph A. Loveland, commanding general call for the development of high individual proficiency with assigned weapons on the outstanding range facilities which have been recently completed at Grayling. Training will progress through unit assault problems and a division-wide defense operation as all organizations move into Grayling's rolling hills for a two-night bivouac.

For some Guardsmen it will be the fourth post-war encampment, for others their first indoctrination in field soldiering. Veteran or recruit, all will be part of the 46th Division team playing the game for keeps. They, like Guardsmen everywhere, will be perfecting their training to fulfill their mission as a first-line reserve component of the nation's

14 Leave Monday For Medicals

Fourteen Crawford County men are slated to leave next Monday for medical examination, according to C. B. Johnson, clerk of the Crawford County Selective Service Board.

Among those to receive medical examinations prior to later induction into the armed forces are Joseph William Bogart, Aaron W. Deckrow, Clarence H. Shaw, Russell D. Seeley, Stanley S. Hummel, Tony Kequom, Robert K. Wakely, Charles W. Armstrong, Roy W. Reva, James C. Douglas, Roland D. Burns, James L. Budd, and Roland T. Wilcox and Joseph C. Galvani.

Clerk Johnson said that 2 Crawford County registrants would be drafted into the United States armed forces in September and are scheduled to leave Grayling on September 12.

He added that it appeared as though a number of 18-year-olds have not registered as they became of age in the past two years. He said the County Board urges any youth who has reached 18 years of age since August, 1948 and has not registered to do so immediately as the penalty for failure to register is a $5,000 fine or 5 years imprisonment, or both.

Registrants may register with board members Alfred Hanson at his garage, Charles E. Moore at his office or James Post at the Grayling Post Office or with Clerk Johnson.

Each youth reaching 18 years of age must register within ten days from that date or he may be prosecuted for failure to do so, it was explained. Likewise, all registrants must report to the board any change of address, or if married or if children are born to the family changing their status, Clerk Johnson said. This information is required upon the classification card which the registrant carries and must be on file with the board in order that each registrant is properly classified.

Former Residents Son Killed In Car Crash

Don Ingerson, 38, of Seattle, Washington, was killed in a three car collision on July 28, according to word received here.

He was the son of the former Angie Babbitt and Arthur Ingerson, both former residents of this area. The couple left here in 1907 for the West Coast. Mrs. Ingerson is a sister of Dan C. Babbitt.

The Suit or Trump Pinochle Club met at the home of Mrs. Stanley Mathewson on July 27. Mrs. Daniel Brown and Mrs. Alfred D. Hanson were guests of the club. Mrs. Clyde Anthony held high score and Mrs. Brown received consolation prize. The next meeting will be August 10th at the home of Mrs. Don Sorenson.

Bill Butler, Jr., of Detroit spent the week end with his sister, Miss Florence Butler.

Convoys and Trains

Motor convoys and trains from more than two score communities will concentrate the 46th Infantry Division and attached units at the Hanson State Military Reservation for what Major General Ralph A. Loveland, commanding general, has termed "the most significant and critical" field training in the post war history of the Guard.

More than 1,000 military vehicles of all types will be on the highways next Saturday, starting in the early morning hours, as long convoys head for Grayling. The bulk of the troops will be moved by rail. A total of 258 passenger, baggage and flat cars have been scheduled in the rail move. Fastest move to camp will be made by the division's 17 liaison aircraft.

Approximately 500 Guardsmen will be included in advance parties scheduled to move into camp on August 8 and 9. All units will send food service personnel to participate in the pre-camp training school. Other advance parties will arrange for the preparation of the camp site for the main body arriving on Saturday.

Among the heavy items of ordnance moved to camp this year will be more than 70 tanks, mostly medium M-4 Sherman. The tanks will be used in the Guard's new armored center near Grayling for the training of the 246th Heavy Tank Battalion, the 46th Reconnaissance Company, and the regimental heavy tank companies.

A review of the masses troops of the 46th Infantry Division and attached units by Governor G. Mennen Williams and top leaders of the Michigan National Guard highlights the list of events scheduled for 19-20 August, half-way mark of the 1950 field training encampment.

Governor Williams is slated to arrive at Camp Grayling on Saturday morning, 19 August. Following an inspection of the encampment area, he will lunch with personnel of Hq. 46th Infantry Division.

At 1400 hours the Commander-in-Chief will join Maj. Gen. Ralph A. Loveland, commanding general, Brig. Gen. George C. Moran, The Adjutant General, and other staff leaders in the ceremonies of the traditional Division Review.

Before the more than 8,000 troops pass in review with their weapons and equipment, an as yet unknown Guardsman will come forward to receive from the Governor the Brig. Gen. Earl R. Stewart Medal as the outstanding enlisted man of the 1950 encampment. The Stewart Medal winner will also receive a $25 cash award from the Michigan Commandery, Military Order of Foreign Wars, in recognition of his achievement.

Climax of the day will be an evening reception in honor of the Commander-in-Chief. The Governor will spend the night in a tent on Division Hill.

On Sunday morning, 20 August, Governor Williams will deliver the principal address at the traditional Memorial Services to be conducted on the slopes of Division Hill in honor of the many Guardsmen who have made the supreme sacrifice in our nation's defense.

Thousands of relatives and friends are expected to converge on Camp Grayling for the traditional events of the week end.

1950 Trout Planting Up

Trout plantings in Michigan lakes and streams are ahead of last year's schedule with conservation department crews releasing 755,000 legal-size trout, or 55,000 more than stocked through July, 1949.

Fish hatchery crews will continue through September with regular planting and then shift to lakes only for a final planting period.

Northern Lower Peninsula trout waters have received more than half of the entire hatchery crop, getting 149,000 rainbow, 134,000 brown, 104,000 brook, and 50,000 lake trout. More than 50 per cent of the 185,000 planted in the Upper Peninsula were brook-trout. About 82,000 of the 133,000 released in the southern third of the state were rainbow.

Grayling Summer Visitor Passes At Fort Wayne

Mrs. George Griffith returned home from Ft. Wayne, Indiana, Tuesday evening, where she had gone to attend the final rites of John J. Kronenberg which were held last Thursday. Mr. Kronenberg had been a frequent visitor at the Griffith home, and had made quite a few friends here. He had been ill for several months and in critical condition since the Tuesday previous to his death. He passed away at his home on July 31. President of the Wayne Knitting Mills since 1937 and vice president the preceding five years, he is survived by his wife and daughter, Vivian.

Mrs. Griffith was joined in Ft. Wayne by Mr. Griffith and they also attended the wedding of Miss Sally Connell and James Love held in the Episcopal Church there Saturday evening. The Connells have also been frequent guests of the Griffiths.

Kiwanis Club Notes

Rev. A. T. Tomshaney, who spends his summers at his cottage at Bear Lake was the speaker at Monday night's meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Grayling held at the Lone Pine Inn. He was introduced by George Burke who was in charge of the program.

Rev. Tomshaney told his experience in coming to this country at the age of 15 and how opportunities were provided for him. He made a brief history of the Kiwanis Club, just before World War I up to the present international crisis.

Although his ideas were not shared by all of the club members, he did give the club a lot to think about as far as America's part in international alliances is concerned.

Don't Hoard!

Some time ago an association of retailers, which has a membership of 7,500 stores, appointed a Committee on Emergency Government Controls under the chairmanship of a Harvard professor of retailing. A few days after hostilities began in Korea, the Committee met. It was urged that its members, and all other stores, "carry on through the months ahead with their usual concern for the interests of consumers and the added determination to serve in all possible ways the interests of the nation as it faces a possible developing emergency." It emphasized that retailers will give full support to the government in policies resulting from the crisis in the Far East. It announced that retail experts would be delegated to consult with government officials on problems of policy that affect retailing.

In peace or war, retailing is primarily concerned with the welfare of the consumer—if only for the reason that in the long run consumer welfare will determine the retailer's welfare. During and directly after the last war retailing did a splendid job in fighting the black market, in pointing out the dangers in consumer hoarding, and in making a limited supply of goods go around as equitably as possible. The experience thus gained places it in a better position than ever before to serve in any kind of an emergency.

Disquieting reports of scare buying and hoarding have appeared again. It is to the great credit of retailing that the vast majority of store operators are urging that consumers buy normally, and are pointing out that the supply of goods of almost all kinds is fully adequate. The hoarder is a menace at a time like this. The intelligent and patriotic consumer will co-operate with retailing in preventing shortages and maladjustments in the supply machine by purchasing only what he needs.

It says SUCCESS—with SPIRIT

First of the Fine Cars in Value

YOU can see this man has made his mark in life, and while his heart's still young.

You can tell he likes action for his money—that he knows a fine car needn't be the most expensive to give the greatest value.

Yes, such are the things you know of any man, when you note that his car is a ROADMASTER.

Follow him on his spirited way as he pilots this lively motorcar through traffic. Even the lightweights are no match for this road-steady husky—not with the 152-horsepower straight-eight Fireball engine that purrs beneath its bonnet.

Maneuver beside him at the next stop light. Then just try to get away as smoothly, swiftly and silently as Dynaflow Drive gets his ROADMASTER going—and keeps it rolling without shifting, even automatically.

But don't waste time merely envying the man in this great car! Why not emulate him?

With all its outside room, interior luxury and exterior grace—with all its front-rank prestige, rare performance and matchless ride—a ROADMASTER has everything for less than some smaller cars cost.

In fact, even if you had a fortune to spend, you couldn't make a more fortunate buy in the fine-car field.

So we suggest you try a few minutes behind the wheel. We're confident they will convince you that ROADMASTER has everything you could ever ask for in any motorcar—although your Buick dealer asks a good-bit less for ROADMASTER than you might pay for other top-line cars.

Guide To Fishing

By
JACK SCHWEIGERT
Roving Reporter

Surely an attempt at answering the question, "Where are there good Blue Gill Lakes?" would only find me greatly contradicted, as there are any number of lakes that may be far better than those I have contacted recently. One thing I will say, do not pass up some of the small lakes. They not only provide the fun of exploring but many times produce very good size Blue Gills and Bass.

This time of the season the larger fish usually are found in the deeper part of the lakes during the day. In fishing a new lake it would be best to sound it for depth. In the morning and evening the drop off is usually the best bet for productivity. It is much better to explore the lake before you decide its contents.

Trout fishermen have been doing good with good Hopper flies. If your luck have been poor try Peacock herl body flies, this time of the season they are very effective.

The high time the 9th and 10th will be in the forenoon. The day fishing will be best until the 15th. As for evening fishing you will find it poor. If good catches are made it will not be luck, you will have to work hard for them.

Any question that you may have concerning fishing will be answered if you address them to "Guide to Fishing," Box 41, Roscommon, Michigan.

Letters To The Editor

Grayling, Michigan,
July 24, 1950.

Editor
Crawford Avalanche,
Grayling, Michigan.

Relative to the article that appeared in your July 13th edition captioned, "Game Division Proposes Opening Parts of Hanson Game Refuge." You no doubt are now aware of the fact that the Conservation Department on authority of the Conservation Commission, was ordered to open all private and State owned lands within the Hanson Game Refuge to public hunting.

For your information the action taken by the Conservation Commission was in part due to the fact that the Commission was threatened with a suit in Court by a private land-owner whose lands were within the Hanson Game Refuge boundaries. Rather than face such action in Court and to justify the opening of State owned lands within the Refuge, the Commission claimed there were too many deer in the area.

Whether the Commission's action was justified in so far as the opening of State owned lands are concerned is debatable. Most certainly their action was not considerate or in spirit with the gift of lands to the State, by the late Mr. Rasmus Hanson whose gift was contingent on such lands being established as a Game Refuge. It is a well known fact that for many years the Conservation Department has endeavored to secure permission from the Hanson heirs to open the Hanson Game Refuge to public hunting, but to no avail. Apparently by their recent action in opening State owned lands to public hunting, they figure this action as the opening wedge to accomplish their goal. Have they no consideration for and no appreciation of the act of Mr. Hanson in giving the State the huge tract of land that he did? This generous gift comprising acreage approximating 14,000 acres which included valuable lake frontage on Lake Margrethe. Also Mr. Hanson built and furnished the Officer's Club House.

Now it is up to the Conservation Department to plainly mark and post all the State owned lands that they voted to open to public hunting. This means the expenditure of a considerable amount of public money that seems wasteful and unnecessary. Each area so opened should be properly patrolled during the hunting season, otherwise there will be wholesale hunting on the Hanson Game Refuge. In this case, it seems that the Hanson heirs would be justified in taking action to recover the lands that were so generously deeded to the State by the late Mr.

Hanson. From a personal standpoint, it would seem more practical for the Commission to rescind their action in so far as State owned lands are concerned.

Local Citizen.

Inspect Area Forest For Spruce Bud-Worm

Conservation department foresters are scouting state forest red and jack pine acreage in this area for infestations of the spruce bud-worm.

Working with Federal and Michigan State College entomologists, foresters are attempting to determine the size of the area affected and an estimate of the bud-worm population. If the bud-worm infestation is serious enough the survey party will spray early next summer before the insect can do any appreciable amount of damage.

Investigation is underway in the Higgins Lake forest but may spread to the AuSable forest before the survey is ended.

The insect damages pine by eating the foliage.

This crew recently completed an experimental spraying project aimed at controlling the anomala beetle which also attacks pine. First observations indicated 90-95

Crawford County Library

The Library Work-Shop met at the Conservation training school at Higgins Lake, July 24-28. Miss Eucodia Stratton of Michigan State Library was chairman.

There were seventy librarians enrolled, among them our local librarian, Mrs. Ella Funck. Including the staff and consultants there were eighty-four in the camp.

This work shop had the largest attendance of any of the Library Work-shops. There is a work shop at four different places in Michigan each year. Higgins Lake is a favorite camp of many of the librarians.

The Work-shop at Higgins Lake was divided into four groups this year. Group I for librarians that were attending for the first and second year; Group II for librarians that had attended more than two years; Group III for teacher librarians and school librarians; Group IV, a special day for trustees.

The purpose was to provide an opportunity to discuss new methods. There was book display and library posters; an intensive study on book selections for boys and girls; care and preparation of library materials; and consultant help on individual problems.

Much was said about recreational features of Michigan, with lectures by Mr. Robert O. Dodge of the Department of Conservation of Lansing. Dr. Lewis Beeson of the Michigan Historical Commission, was to talk on "History Comes Alive in Our Town," but was ill and sent someone in his place. Mr. Karl T. Ziesler of the Monroe Evening News, Monroe, spoke on "The Library and the Community." This was an especially good talk and will be published in the Library Journal.

The local librarian returns home anxious for better library service in this County. With the local help needed we hope to have a library that will be a credit to Crawford County. Let's get out of the "Horse and Buggy Days" and have a library that will compare to the school we are proud of.
